CRIW CYMRAEG WEEKLY UPDATE!

The Criw Cymraeg members have been busy this week designing posters to be displayed in our classes promoting the Welsh apps that have been chosen.

The have also been roaming the school spying on teachers and support staff to see if they are using Welsh when talking to each other and also to see if Mrs Pearce, Mrs Gardner and Mrs Ellis-Jones are answering the office phones in Welsh!

MACMILLAN AFTERNOON TEA

Ysgol Y Waun School Council will be holding a Macmillan Afternoon Tea fundraising event at 2 p.m. on the Lloyd's Lane site next Friday afternoon, 18th October, when you are warmly invited to come and join us for the opportunity to enjoy a hot cuppa and buy some delicious tasty cakes! Donations of cakes, biscuits e.t.c would be very gratefully received– please send to school next Thursday or first thing Friday morning.

Pupils may bring £1 to school on Friday to buy their own cake during the day.

We very much hope to see as many parents, family members and friends as possible next week – please come and support this very worthwhile fundraising event and help us raise as much as possible for Macmillan!!

THEMED SCHOOL DINNER

There will be a “Harvest Time” themed school dinner served on Thursday, 24th October when meatballs in tomato sauce or country bake served with pasta or diced potato, peas and sweetcorn followed by a muffin medley will be served – normal school dinner prices of £2.40 apply.

HARVEST SERVICE

This year's Harvest Service will be taken by the Foundation Phase pupils (Reception, Year 1 and Year 2). The children have been working hard preparing for the service and would very much like to invite Foundation Phase Parents to come along and join us in our Harvest celebration which will be taking place straight after morning Registration on the Lloyd's Lane site Friday morning, 25th October. Once again we are collecting non-perishable food items and toiletries for the Oswestry Food Bank who help support families in our local community.

Donations of the following items would be very gratefully received –

- Toiletries - toothbrushes, toothpaste, soap, toilet rolls, shower gels, shampoo, deodorants, baby toiletries
- Tinned foods – e.g. fish, meat, soup, fruit, custard, rice puddings
- Cooking sauces e.g. pasta sauce, curry sauce, sweet and sour etc
- Rice, pasta, pot noodles, pasta pots
- Cereals, sugar, coffee, tea, squash, hot chocolate, juice
- Cat and dog food

Please send your donations into school by Thursday, 24th October ready for our service – thank you for your support.

RECEPTION SEPTEMBER 2020

Please would all current Nursery parents ensure that they apply for their child's September 2020 Reception place by logging onto www.wrexham.gov.uk website and following the link for School Admissions. If you are unable to apply on line you will need to collect a paper form from the Contact Centre, 16 Lord Street, Wrexham. All applications need to be received by Wrexham's Admissions Department by 22nd November. Thank you.

HALF TERM DANCE WORKSHOP

Leaflets have been left in both school offices about a half term workshop for children aged 5+ being run by Danceworks on the 30th and 31st October in Llangollen's town hall offering two days of drama, musical theatre and creative prop making at a cost of £39.
