CRIW CYMRAEG WEEKLY UPDATE!

The Criw Cymreag Team would like to thank all of the pupils who sent in Eisteddfod Competition entries and / or competed in today's Eisteddfod. Llongyfarchiadau (congratulations) to all of the worthy winners and well done everybody.

May we also say you all looked fantastic today in you Welsh costumes!!

A big diloch yn fawr to Mr Hemmings, Mrs Jones and Mrs Jones, our School Governors, who helped judge at this morning's Eisteddfod.

Thank you all for helping to celebrate Dydd Dewi Sant in style and with such enthusiasm!!
Da iawn pawb!!

FOUNDATION PHASE CHOIR

20 of our choir members from years 1 and 2, supported by Miss Hughes and Mr Roberts, sang a medley of Welsh songs for the residents of Chirk Court on Friday 28th February. The children really enjoyed performing in a different setting and the residents were very impressed with their singing and want a return visit soon!

CHIRK LIBRARY VISIT

It will be the turn of Cherry class to visit Chirk Library on Monday, 9th March. Don't forget to bring along your Library card if you are a member of Chirk Library.

SPORTS RELIEF 2020

Once again Ysgol y Waun will be taking part in this year's Sports Relief, week ending 13th March. Further details to follow. We look forward to your support!

BOOK DAY TOKENS

A Book Day Token has been sent home with your child this week. These tokens can be used to get a free World Book Day Book or £1 off the purchase price of books costing £2.99 or more in shops and outlets supporting this year's scheme. Tokens are valid from 27th February to the 29th March. Happy reading everyone!
