Welsh Phrase of the Week!

Mae hi'n oer

It is cold

Dear Parents

This week our thoughts and prayers are with Mia Parry's family and friends.

Mia passed away peacefully last weekend. She will be greatly missed by everyone who knew her.

Mia was, quite simply, one of life's little treasures. Always smiling and full of fun!

We encourage you to celebrate her life by sharing memories of Mia with your children over the coming days and weeks.

School Choir

We welcome you to come and support our school choir on Saturday 1st December at St Marys Church – starting at 5:30 pm (choir members to arrive at 5pm). The choir will entertain us with a medley of festive favourites before we all walk into the centre of Chirk for 'The Lights Switch On' at 6pm.

Bag Packing.

The School and Eco Council will be packing bags in Morrisons, Oswestry on Sunday to raise funds for school. Please pop along if you are in town to see us. We would love to pack your bags!

Christmas Concerts

At the end of this week tickets have been sent out for the schools Christmas concerts, so please check your child's bag. Please note tickets are still available from both offices.

The Christian Library have again done their usual visit to Chapel Lane, if your child has brought a slip home with a book outstanding please return to the school

Movie Night

For £3.50 you can leave your child/children in school until 5.15 pm. they can watch a 'Movie, have Popcorn and a Drink' leaving you extra time for you to do some Christmas shopping!
